

Thank you Lord that You are a faithful God that we can depend on. That You are powerful and that the history we read about doesn't make You old or irrelevant but proves to us just how great You are. Help us to always put our hope and trust in You, rather than an ever changing world. Amen

HELLO BOYS & GIRLS

JARROD SAUNDERS

Hello boys and girls, recently Jazz and I went to the museum. We got to see lots of really old looking things. We saw a horse and cart like they used to use before there were cars, Jazz really liked that idea because he loves horses. I loved all the old dresses, people used to dress up like they were going to a ball every single day.

Our teachers explained that we were learning about our history and how things have changed over many years. From what we saw things were really different all those years ago. What people wore, where and how they lived, even what they ate and how they cooked food.

It's amazing to think that even though all these things have changed over hundreds of years that the God we serve remains the same. That's what mommy said when we told her about our excursion. She explained that in the beginning Adam and Eve lived very differently to the way those people lived at the museum and even differently to the way we live now. The way we talk, dress, work and even the way in which her and dad raise our family, everything is different in one way or another. But who God is never changing. He is the same God who performed all the miracles in the Bible, the same God who saved the Israelites from slavery and the same God who raised Jesus from the dead. We and the world we live in may change but He remains the same.

That is why we are always able to put our hope and trust in Him and know without a doubt that He will never fail. ❏
